

St. Edward's College QUAD Development

Oxford

Client:
St. Edward's College
Consultant:
QODA Consulting
Main Contractor:
Gilbert Ash
Architect:
TSH Architects
NUGENT Mechanical:
Mark McAllister
NUGENT Electrical:
Chris Walker
Completion:
October 2020
Value: £18m

The QUAD development was originally part of the historic buildings original master plan in 1873. The academic facilities provides teaching and library accommodation alongside impressive stage lighting & audio visual installation. The new build study centre includes 1,000 seat assembly hall, library, reading room, foyer & flexible teaching space.

MEP services installed by NUGENT

- Full Domestic Water Services Supply
- Sanitary Ware Installation
- AHU & Extract Fans
- LTHW Heating System
- HVAC System
- Fire Protection System - Smoke Extraction
- Fire Protection System - Dry Riser & Sprinkler System
- Natural Gas Installation
- Gas Fired Water Heaters
- Sub-mains Cabling
- All Lighting - General, Emergency, External
- Audio Visuals
- Disabled Refuge System
- Disabled Toilet Alarm System
- Lighting Control System
- Feature Lighting
- Lightning Protection