

University of Dundee - CITR

Scotland

Client:
University of Dundee
Consultant:
Hulley Kirkwood
Main Contractor:
Tracey Brothers
Architect:
BMJ
NUGENT Mechanical:
Mervin Church
Completion:
November 2013
Value: £26m

The Centre for Translational & Interdisciplinary research is an exciting, innovative development. The research space is for drug development, Mathematical Biology, Biophysics, Bioinformatics, data analysis & software development housing over 140 research staff.

MEP services installed by NUGENT

- Low Temperature Hot Water Installation
- Chilled Water Installation
- Air Handling Unit (manufactured on site)
- Chilled water and Chiller Installation
- Humidification Installation
- Public Health Installations
- Air-conditioning Installations
- Eye Wash Systems
- BEMS System
- VFR Unit Installation
- Compressed Air Installation
- Fume Cupboard Extract
- Safety Cabinet
- Special Manufacture of Bespoke Lab Sinks
- Domestic Services
- Medical Gas Installation
- Natural Gas Installation
- Holding Room
- Specialist Sanitary Ware Installation