

BRIGHTON COLLEGE PERFORMING ARTS CENTRE

England

Client:
Brighton College
Consultant:
Skelly & Couch
Main Contractor:
Gilbert Ash
Architect:
KRFT / NHA
NUGENT Mechanical:
Brendan Gildernew / Mel O'Neill
NUGENT Electrical:
Chirs McClelland
Completion:
2023
Value: £23M

Brighton College was founded in 1845 by William Aldwin Soames and was the first independent school to be founded in Sussex. The new theatre and performing arts centre entails a 400 seat multifunctional theatre, dance and drama studios, 6th Form centre, classrooms and open space. The building is estimated to be 3,200 square metres of space over 3 floors and a basement.

MEP services installed by NUGENT

- Dry riser installation
- Connecting to existing campus LTHW, CHW, Domestic Services and Below ground level flue modifications
- Ventilation
- AHUs
- MVHRs
- MFSD's
- FCUs
- Smoke extract system
- Underfloor heating
- Radiators
- Thermal insulation
- BMS
- LV Supply and distribution
- General Lighting and Power
- UPS power distribution
- Motorised Windows
- Sound Systems and Induction Loops
- Services for the Disabled
- CCTV System
- Access Control System
- Fire Alarm system
- Lightning protection
- Structured Cabling
- Theatre specific stage lighting systems
- Theatre specific stage engineering supplies